Hi Supervisor Ellenberg - We met at the Campbell Farmer's market a few weeks ago. Appreciate all the hard work you're doing in Santa Clara. I'm a parent of 2 girls in SCUSD, volunteering to help in our school garden. Are there any resources available for school and community gardens that you recommend a tap into?

team. In terms of specific updates this month, be sure to click on the Policy and Community Updates.

HIGHLIGHTS OF NOTE: In March, I took the first step toward building a system of universal child care in Santa Clara County by directing administrative staff to create a plan that will provide child care to County employees beginning in the new fiscal year through a combination of onsite services, subsidies and emergency care options.

With nearly 20,000 employees, Santa Clara County is the third largest employer in Silicon Valley - behind only Apple and Google – so not only will this impact a great number of our local workforce but should also serve as an example to other employers of how this can be done.

Read the details in the Policy Updates.

My office also worked in partnership with our County's Office of LGBTQ Affairs last month to honor our transgender community at a Trans Day of Visibility Flag Raising Ceremony on March 26 and a full day of programming on March 30.

Finally, I'll be at the Santa Clara Farmers' Market this month to chat about the things that matter most to your community.

Come out and say hello! Details are on the website.
